From: Mark Beyer - Daily Business Alert
To: Natasha Sellei;
Subject: Hancock invests $30m in Min Resources; BER review clears WA builders; Dexus confirms QV1 sale plans; Aurox; Atlas; Mine safety; RBA; Perth Conventions; Apex; Big Sky; Westwide; Beadell; Mormonville; and Aust stocks.
Date: Monday, 9 August 2010 9:05:36 AM

Please add dailybusinessalerts@wabusinessnews.ii.net to your address book to ensure you will continue to receive our newsletters.

Business News
helping business grow integrated first choice for people

Call 13STAFF today!

WABN | SUBSCRIBE TO PAPER | FREE DAILY BUSINESS ALERTS | EVENTS | BOOK OF LISTS | CONTACT US

Hello Natasha, welcome to our Daily Business Alert for Friday August 6, putting tomorrow's business news in your inbox today. For a broader view go to www.wabusinessnews.com.au. If you have some news you think we should know about, please email news@wabusinessnews.com.au - Mark Beyer - Editor

Hancock invests $30m in Min Resources
Mineral Resources has substantially bolstered its balance sheet this week, obtaining a $30 million capital injection from Gina Rinehart's Hancock Prospecting one day after finalising a deal to extract itself from the costly Windimurra Vanadium project.

BER review clears WA builders
The interim review of the Federal Government's schools building stimulus program only received eight complaints about WA schools from almost 1400 WA projects that received funding.

Dexus confirms QV1 sale plans
Dexus Property Group has confirmed plans to start marketing its half-share in the QV1 office building later this year through agent CB Richard Ellis.

Aurox shareholders approve Atlas merger
Aurox Resources says its shareholders have "overwhelmingly" approved a merger with Atlas Iron worth around $143 million.

Still no inquiry into mine safety: Moore
Mines Minister Norman Moore has rejected calls for a full-scale inquiry into mine safety following the death of a miner in the Goldfields yesterday.

Advertorial
Shaw River: building a global manganese business
Shaw River Resources is committed to creating wealth for shareholders by discovering and acquiring world-class manganese resources. It has exploration programs underway in WA and Ghana which are expected to generate strong newsflow over coming months.

AUSTRALIAN INSTITUTE of COMPANY DIRECTORS

RBA growth forecasts unchanged
The Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA) has maintained its forecasts for strong economic growth in Australia, but much depends on the resource sector's timetable for starting major projects .

$93m sales for Perth Convention Bureau
The state government says the Perth Convention Bureau has delivered a $93 million business events boost to the state's economy.

Apex completes $5m capital raising
Apex Minerals has successfully completed a $5 million capital raising through a share placement to institutional and sophisticated investors to fund operational improvements at its Wiluna gold project.

Big Sky takes over Westwide
Melbourne-based Big Sky Financial Solutions (BSFS) has acquired Perth firm Westwide Financial Services.

Beadell settles $47m William Creek case
Perth-based Beadell Resources has settled a long standing multi-million dollar claim relating to an alleged environmental disturbance of the William Creek system in Brazil.

'Mormonville' scam nets $4m: police
A woman has defrauded Perth residents of more than $4 million by selling shares in a bogus land development she called `Mormonville', police say.

Aust stocks close flat
The Australian share market closed flat, paring back early losses during the afternoon trade in quiet trading conditions.

free 8 WEEK TRIAL GET YOUR COPY OF THE WA BUSINESS NEWS
Be seen by over 20,000 executives click here to find out how
need sales leads BOOK OF LISTS