

City, Coast and Country

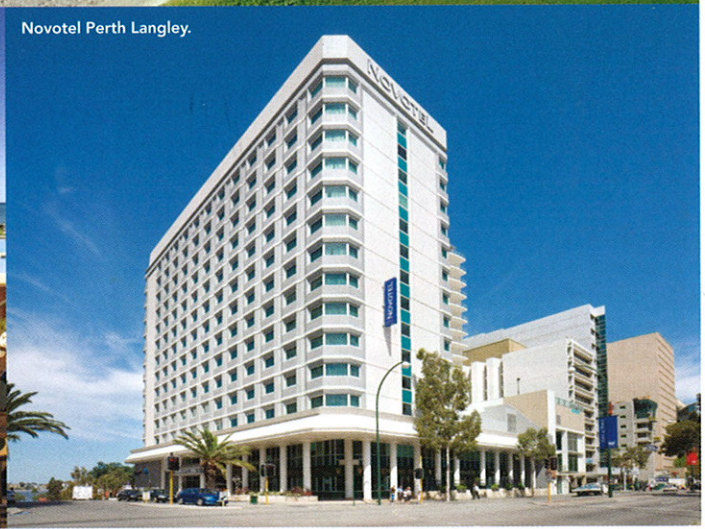

No matter where you take your delegates in Western Australia, there is a Novotel that can offer your group an unforgettable experience.

The Swan Valley's Novotel The Vines.

Novotel Ningaloo Resort.

Novotel Perth Langley.

Accor's Meeting@Novotel concept provides organisers an easy way to plan their conference, meeting or special event as seamlessly as possible working with their event teams ensuring that your function is an absolute success.

And if Western Australia is your destination of choice, there is a Novotel to suit any type of location you're seeking, from country to city to coast.

If it's a conference and corporate golf day outside the CBD the Novotel The Vines Resort and Country Club has a course that's consistently named a favourite by golfing professionals year after year. Offering 103 resort rooms and 54 condominiums, the Resort is situated in Western Australia's Swan Valley.

Popular for golf days and conferencing, the property can cater for up to 300 delegates within seven meeting rooms. Additionally a huge variety of team building programs are available and in the evening themed gala dinners, wine tastings or poolside barbeques can easily be organised.

If the CBD is what you're after, the Novotel Perth Langley is centrally located and offers 253 rooms with city and Swan River views.

The property has a dedicated conferencing floor with six function spaces for groups and a pillar-less ballroom and can accommodate up to 550 delegates.

Additionally the onsite and award winning Sen5es Restaurant and Bar as well as Fenians, a traditional Irish pub, can be used as part of your function at the Novotel Perth Langley.

If the coast is more your thing, The Novotel

Ningaloo Resort is located on Sunrise Beach in Exmouth giving delegates a luxury escape. With eight different room types available (all with ocean views), the property is perfect for small to medium sized meetings and functions up to 100. It's also perfectly suited for incentives.

The Novotel Ningaloo Resort is surrounded by some of Australia's best natural attractions including the stunning Ningaloo Reef and rugged Cape Range National Park and the destination lends itself perfectly for diving excursions, snorkelling, whale watching or taking part in the seasonal and highly popular manta ray and whale shark swims.

For more information on any of these three properties visit: www.vines.com.au, www.novotelperthlangley.com.au, www.novotelningaloo.com.au